

VENOM

discussion questions | march 3, 2013

Sin is more than just bad choices. It's a force we've unleashed onto the world. Now we are enslaved to it. But Jesus' death and resurrection promise that God is not done with the world. In Jesus, we have the freedom to live in hope, to join in with what God is doing to restore the world right now!

Scripture for Further Reading

Genesis 3:16-19; Genesis 4:6-7; 2 Kings 6:8-17; Romans 7:9-25, 8:18-28; Ephesians 6:11-17; 1 Peter 5:8-11

Verse to Memorize

We know that God causes everything to work together for the good of those who love God and are called according to his purpose for them. -- Romans 8:28 (NLT)

Questions for Discussion

1. Where do you see Sin that is bigger than individual bad choices?
2. Why is trying to understand Why those things happen unhelpful?
3. What's the difference between claiming that God causes everything and Paul's statement in Romans 8:28?
4. How does knowing God is bigger than Sin change how we live?
5. What does hope look like in your life this week? Where do you need to stand tall and trust God?

