

Through the Resurrection, God calls us to join God in restoring the world. Jesus' resurrection is proof of God's faithfulness to bring life even in the face of death. When we live in the power of Jesus' resurrection, we can step confidently into the calling God has on our lives. We can step out in faith, take the big risk, jump with both feet into God's mission!

Scripture for Further Reading

Matthew 28:1-20; Luke 24:1-53; John 20:1-31; 1 Corinthians 15:20-32; Revelation 3:7-15

Questions for Discussion

1. Why is the resurrection proof of God's faithfulness?
2. Why does Paul refer to Jesus' resurrection as a 'first fruits harvest' in 1 Corinthians (see above)?
3. How is God calling you forward? What is at stake for you? In other words, why is following God's call a risk?
4. How does Jesus' resurrection provide assurance that your risk is worth it?
5. What does 'jumping in with both feet' look like this week?

