

Holiness has become a 'churchy' word, but it simply means different, set apart or special. Something that is holy is set apart from what's around it. So as people who follow Jesus, who live in the space between the Resurrection and the Second Coming, we are to live differently from the world around us. Our lives should look like Jesus' life.

Scripture for Further Reading

Isaiah 6:1-6; Matthew 7:17-23; 1 Corinthians 6:9-20; Galatians 5:13-26; James 4:1-10

Questions for Discussion

1. What does it mean to be Holy?
2. How does a holy life embody living in the tension between the Resurrection and the Second Coming?
3. What does holiness look like in the life of a person following Jesus?
4. To you tend towards conformity with the world or legalism? How do you keep yourself on the middle path of holiness?
5. What does holiness look like today for you? This week?

