

Discussion Guide for “Spring Cleaning” The Devil in the Details Week 3

Does anyone these days feel like they have margin in their lives? Space in their schedules, in their finances? We tend to live at 100%, with no space to listen for God, no room to engage God’s calling on our lives. How can we make space for God to organize and orient our lives?

Scriptures for Further Reading

John 2:13-22

Exodus 20:1-17

Psalm 19

1 Corinthians 1:18-25

Lenten Challenge:

This week, track your time or your spending. How much space do you have in your life? How can you create some more space to sit with God, listen for God’s voice?

Questions for Discussion

1. Are you a packrat? Why do you think people hold onto stuff?
2. How much space do you feel like you have in your life?
3. What was the problem with the Temple in John 2? How was it failing to fulfill its intended purpose?
4. What does the Temple Cleansing say about Jesus? How is this an act of his love for us?
5. How can you create space in your life in this month leading up to Easter?