

Discussion Guide for “Do They Know It’s Christmas?”

Worst Christmas Songs Ever! Week 5

It's easy to get so wrapped up in Christmas that we forget Jesus came for the whole world. But the truth is that Christmas means peace for the whole earth, and good will for all people. How can we have a global perspective on Christmas?

Passage for Sacred Reading:

Sacred Reading is a way of reading Scripture with an eye toward transformation, not just information. Get a step-by-step guide here. The passage for this week’s sacred reading is Psalm 148.

Questions for Discussion

1. Did you already know, “Do They Know It’s Christmas”? What do you think of these kinds of charity songs?
2. How familiar are you with the forms of Christianity in Africa? Do you think mainly about Christianity as an American/European tradition?
3. Consider Psalm 148. What do you think it means to celebrate Jesus as the savior of the whole world?
4. As you consider what’s next for our church, where do other versions of Christianity fit into that vision?
5. How can you celebrate Jesus as the savior of the whole world this week?